CHAPTER XV

CERTIFIED COPY

21) Certified Copies of Order

- i. A party to any proceeding may, on application on the prescribed Court fee, made to the Tribunal, obtain a certified copy of any judgment, order, or any document filed in the proceeding. The application may be made by the party himself or by his recognised agent or by his pleader or Advocate and may also be sent by post.
- ii. The application shall state whether the copy applied for is required for private use or otherwise.
- iii. Where a party applies for a certified copy by post other than registered post, the date of its receipt by the office of the Tribunal would be the date of the presentation of the application. Whenever such application is made by registered post, the same shall be prepaid for acknowledgment and the date of receipt of the letter would be the date of presentation of the application to the Tribunal.
- iv. Applications for copies by persons other than parties to the proceeding shall be supported by an affidavit stating the purpose for which the copies are sought.
- v. On receipt of an application, the office shall immediately scrutinize it with a view to ascertaining the correct number of the proceeding, names of the parties, description of the document copy of which is applied for, and whether the document is available for copying.

- vi. The office shall estimate the costs of the copies before the copying work is undertaken. The estimate should, as far as possible, cover all probable costs of the copies.
- vii. The applicant shall be called upon to deposit the estimated costs of the copies applied for, and make up other deficiencies then and there only, if his presence is available in the office. In other cases, Registrar to pass the orders requiring the applicant to make good the deficiencies within a specified period of time, not exceeding seven days from the receipt of the intimation.
- viii. If the applicant fails to furnish the estimated cost or to make good the deficiencies within one month from the date of issuance of notice, his application for copy shall be filed and the amount due to him, if any, should be refunded after deducting the charge incurred if any.
- ix. As soon as the office finds that the application is complete in all respects, Registrar to pass orders granting or refusing the application.

In case the Registrar refuses to grant the application, the grounds for refusal shall be recorded on the application and such refusal and the grounds thereof shall be communicated to the applicant in writing.
- x. The ordinary copies shall be furnished within 7 days of the presentation or receipt of the application, if the application is complete on that date, unless further delay is unavoidable in which case the cause shall be endorsed on the copy. In other cases, the period of 7 days shall be computed from the date on which the application is complete in all respects, excluding the holidays.
- xi. Urgent copies shall be furnished within 48 hours from the time the application is found to be complete, excluding the holidays.

- xii. When a party applies for a copy of an appellate judgment for the purposes of filing a further appeal or revision, he shall be furnished with a copy not only of the judgment but also of the grounds of appeal and of the cross objections, if any, unless these are incorporated in the judgment itself.
- xiii. In the case of Roznama, the portion of which copy is given, at the discretion of Registrar, must include all the entries of a particular date or dates, accompanied with the heading.
- xiv. Copies of any document on the record of a proceeding prepared by a party may in the discretion of the Registrar, be certified as true copies upon an application made in that behalf.
- xv. (1) The following endorsement shall be made on every copy of the document:
 - a) The date on which the copy was applied for.
 - b) The date on which application was complete.
 - c) The date (when the date once given is subsequently changed, the last of such changed dates) given to the applicant for taking delivery of the copy.
 - d) The date on which the copy was ready for delivery.
 - e) The date on which it was delivered or posted.(2) To prevent unauthorised alterations being made, the date shall be written in letters in distinct handwriting and the endorsement should be signed by the Registrar on the date on which it was made.
- xvi. The certified copies shall be charged at the following rates:
 - a) A flat rate of Rs. 4 for ordinary printed/ photocopy and Rs. 7 for urgent printed/ photocopy shall be charged per page of the certified copy inclusive of copying, comparing and paper cost irrespective of the fact whether the document is in English or in regional language.

- b) In case of ordinary and urgent typed copy Rs. 10 and Rs. 15 per page of the certified copy shall be charged respectively.
 - c) In case of a copy of map or plan, the charges for copying, comparing and paper cost shall not be less than Rs. 5 and more than Rs. 25 as the Registrar may determine.
 - d) In case of comparison and certification of private copies prepared on private Photocopying Machine, the charges shall be Rs. 10 per page.
 - e) The Court fee stamps as may be prescribed under the Bombay Court Fees Act shall be affixed on application for certified copies.
- xvii. In case the estimated deposit falls short of the charges which would have to be recovered in respect of the copies, the balance shall be recovered from the parties or lawyer concerned before the copies are delivered personally. In case the applicant applies for such copies by post, it will be responsibility of the party to collect the copies by paying the deficit.
- xviii. All copies should be correct, printed, typed or photocopied clearly and shall be dated, subscribed and duly sealed.

CHAPTER XVI

REMOVAL OF DIFFICULTIES AND ISSUANCE OF DIRECTIONS

- 22) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Regulations, wherever the Regulations are silent or no provision is made, the Chairperson may issue appropriate directions to remove difficulties and issue such orders or circulars from time to time to govern the situation or contingency that may arise in the working of the Appellate Tribunal.

CHAPTER XVII

CONFIDENTIALITY

- 23)
- i. The Tribunal shall appraise and determine whether any document or evidence produced by any party and claimed by that party to be of a confidential nature is to be withheld from disclosure to other parties as being confidential and shall provide brief reasons in writing for arriving at its conclusion.
 - ii. If the Tribunal is of the view that the claim for confidentiality is justified the Tribunal may direct that the same be not provided to such parties as the Tribunal may deem fit. However, the party claiming the confidentiality shall provide a brief non-confidential summary of the substance of the documents found to be confidential and the import of the same.
 - iii. Notwithstanding the above, it shall be open to the Tribunal to take into consideration the contents of the documents found to be confidential in arriving at its decision.
 - iv. The Tribunal may direct any person either to appear, to give evidence or to produce any document or books of accounts and such document or evidence produced may be ordered to be kept in the safe custody of any one of the officers of the Tribunal.

CHAPTER XVIII

GENERAL POWERS TO AMEND/ RECTIFY

- 24) The Tribunal may, at any time and on such terms as to or otherwise, as it may think fit, remove any defect or error apparent on the face of record in any proceedings before it (including any clerical or arithmetical error in any order passed by the Tribunal), either on an application filed by any one of aggrieved parties or suo moto, within 30 days from the date of the order. The Tribunal shall not pass any order on the said application if entertained without giving notice to other side. Provided that if the Tribunal desires to make amendments or rectification in the order to determine such issue, the Tribunal shall provide an opportunity to the parties affected by such amendment or rectification touching such issue to make representations and submissions with respect to the proposed amendment or rectification.

CHAPTER XIX

SAVING OF INHERENT POWERS OF THE TRIBUNAL

- 25)
- i. Nothing in these Regulations shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the inherent powers of the Tribunal to make such orders as may be necessary for meeting the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of the process of the Tribunal.
 - ii. Nothing in these Regulations shall bar the Tribunal from adopting in conformity with the provisions of the Act or Rules, a procedure, which is at variance with any of the provisions of these Regulations, if the Tribunal, in view of the special circumstance of a matter or class of matters and for reasons to be recorded in writing, deems it necessary or expedient for so dealing with such a matter or class of matters.

- iii. Nothing in these Regulations shall bar the Tribunal to deal with any matter or exercise any powers under the Act or Rules, for which no regulations have been framed, and the Tribunal may deal with such matters, powers and functions in a manner it thinks fit.

CHAPTER XX

EXTENSION OR ABRIDGEMENT OF TIME PRESCRIBED

- 26) The time prescribed by the Regulations or by order of the Tribunal for doing any act may be extended (whether it has already expired or not) or abridged for sufficient reasons by an order of the Tribunal subject to the provisions of the Act and the Rules.

CHAPTER XXI

MISCELLANEOUS

- 27) The Tribunal shall make an endeavor to put online system in place in respect of functions relating to the Tribunal. The aforesaid Regulations shall remain in force till they are amended, modified or substituted from time to time.
